

I'm writing on behalf of my local Airl station. To lose the minisrty provided by this station would be such a devastating blow to my community. Airl provides a safe alternative to the music on other stations, it is a place where my children can hear uplifting music and I never have to worry about content. Please consider the loss that many parents and suppoters of this station would feel if it were to be replaced.